In conjunction with the West Coast Eagles, Nic Reid will be a Youth/Colts Ambassador for the Perth Football League this season.

Nic was the feel-good story of the 2020 AFL season, where he climbed the ladder from playing amateurs with North Beach, to playing three games with West Coast Eagles in the 2020 season. He is now back at North Beach and keen to help clubs recruit youth players and retain colts.

Nic is a qualified PE Teacher and is available to present to youth or colts teams about continuing from juniors to amateurs, fun, enjoyment, mateship, benefits.

His involvement may involve training with players or pre/post match presentation.

If you wish to utilise Nic's experience and profile to assist in your club's colts recruitment and retention focus, please contact Brendan Kays, Competition Integrity Officer to find a suitable day and time for Nic to attend.
