Overview

In accordance with the Perth Football League By-Laws, awards for games played may be granted to a player who has played a minimum of 150 games in the Perth Football League/WAAFL.

Individuals who have played 150 matches in the Perth Football League are entitled to be awarded a 150 game card. This card gives the individual to free entry to Perth Football League grand finals.

Individuals who have played 200, 300, 400 and 500 matches in the Perth Football League are eligible to be awarded respective match recognition certificates.

Application process

Applications for player milestone recognition must be submitted to the Perth Football League on the form in the following link: <https://wafootball.forms-db.com/view.php?id=54651>

If applying for a 150 Game Card, the application must be submitted with a current passport quality photo of the player. See requirements below.

Applications must be received by 5pm, 12 August 2022 for consideration in 2022.

Clubs will be notified when cards/certificates are available for collection.
