Summary: Many local councils will support football clubs following the postponement of the 2020 season.	Action: All clubs to contact council ore relative authority to amend ground bookings
---	--

Recent discussions with some local councils confirm they will support senior football clubs regarding their ground bookings resulting from the postponement of the 2020 season until 13th June 2020.

With club training permitted from the 31st May 2020:

1. Clubs should contact their local council and change their current ground bookings to commence from 31st May 2020.
2. This booking amendment should be completed by 31st March 2020 in accordance with each respective councils process ground bookings (ie. online, email or by phone).

This action only relates to ground use. You should contact your local council regarding access and use of your club rooms as soon as possible to determine any usage/fee charges.
