brief history

Beginning in 1922, the WAAFL is now in its 89th year of operation. With 60 clubs, 213 teams and over 12,000 registered players, the WAAFL has grown from a six team competition to the largest organised football league in WA.

The WAAFL continues to focus on the future and how the league uses its leadership and resources to set new standards of excellence and relevance for its member clubs' and various committees. This is reflected in our vision "The Western Australian Amateur Football League aspires to be a premier community sports competition."

The WAAFL provides a quality high standard competition for those players not wishing to endue the commitment to WAFL (second tier competition) training due to study or career commitments or simply a lifestyle that considers football a recreational pursuit however is in a position to bridge the gap between amateur football and the Champions of tomorrow.

presidents report

The 2010 season has been another excellent one for the Western Australian Amateur Football League. Once again we have excelled in all areas and lay claim to be one of the best administrated competitions in WA football. This is due to the strong management in our 60 clubs and the leadership of the Board and dedicated staff. I thank every volunteer who through seeking success at their own clubs have also enhanced and raised the standard and image of the WAAFL.

With growing numbers and influx of junior footballers continuing into the WAAFL has led to a higher standard of competition and an exciting brand of football being played. This is seen in the West Coast Eagles Colts competition as the figures show that we are luring more juniors into amateur football, which allows the competition to meet the WA Football Commissions mission to grow the game throughout the whole metropolitan area. Some clubs now have up to seven teams, all in which are run by volunteers.

Many volunteers have contributed by putting in hours of their own time throughout the year to enable the growth and assist amateur football. Thanks to all those people who have provided support in various committees, tribunals, media roles, umpiring, sub committees and development councils.

The Senior Community Umpires Association has worked hard to retain the numbers in all sections of umpiring. The umpires coaching panel continues to achieve higher standards and this is reflected in the weekly performance of the umpiring group.

Many thanks to all the players, selectors and support staff who were involved in the West Coast Eagles Under 23 and Colts Program this year. To coaches Wayne Langborne and Andy Leinasars we thank you for your efforts once again. Congratulations to the WAAFL players who were chosen in the All Australian Team and also those players who were selected in the U/23 All Australian Amateur International team that toured South Africa in October.

The generous financial support of our sponsors enables the WAAFL to minimize costs to clubs and I thank them for their valued contributions to our competition. In particular to the WA Football Commission along with CUB, West Coast Eagles and Midway Ford, our corporate partners who make the running of the league much easier. Cougar Sportswear, Sherrin, Keystart Home Loans, PowerPlay Sports, Toyota Genuine, Australian Medical Supplies, Granny's Pies and Cakes and Bieresdorf are other partners whose support is greatly appreciated.

Our staff is to be congratulated for the dedicated way in which they have contributed to the continued success of the WAAFL. Under General Manager Cameron Agnew, Operations Manager Geoff Palmer, Operations Co-Ordinator Matt Henson, Office Manager Natalie Couch, Operations Assistants Dylan Mellon, Jasmyn Davidson, Allana Dickie and Administration Assistant Sharni Rowe have assured the league office is in good hands.

All members of the Board give their time freely in a volunteer capacity (like all fellow club officials). Vice President Trevor Howard, Bill Armstrong, Peter D'Alessandro, Peter Grosse, Mark Herron, Graham Hill, Wayne Molloy, Milton Sanders and Bruce Wainwright have formulated policies, strategies and governance issues in truly ethical ways. They have continued to use their wide ranging management and business expertise as well as their understanding of the requirements of amateur football when making decisions.

To anyone who has contributed to the success of another season, in particular those retiring from clubs after years of useful services, I thank you. We all look forward to 2011, the 90th season of the WAAFL since its inception in 1922.

John Davies
President

2010 highlights

- The continued growth of the WAAFL, the overall number reaching 166 senior teams and 47 colts teams across 60 clubs.
- Our largest Medal Presentation night with almost 800 guests attending the event at Burswood Entertainment Complex.
- A highly successful inaugural Hall of Champions function was held at the Subiaco Football Club. Five inductees were recognised and honored as champions of the past from amateur football in the categories of coach, administrator, player or umpire. Five former WAAFL players were also acknowledged in the high achievers category where they went from the amateur competition onto higher levels of Australian football as an administration, player or umpire in the AFL, WAFL or the Country Football League.
- The Australian Amateur Football Council (AAFC) sent an under 23 amateur team to South Africa. Four players represented the WAAFL, Damon Bull, Matthew Breen, Nicholas Kommer, Michael McCann as well as General Manager Cameron Agnew, acting AAFC President John Davies and overall tour manager Peter Grosser. The tour was an outstanding success both in advancement of Aussie Rules and as a cultural experience.
- Five teams Collegians (B Reserve), Bullcreek Leeming (C Gold Reserve), Canning VPSP (D Grade), Whitford (H Grade), Kalamunda (Laurie Keene Colts) went through the season undefeated.
- The inaugural Administrator of Year award was presented at the Medal Presentation dinner and was won by Fremantle CBC official Adrian Rapanaro.
- The West Coast Eagles U/23 State Amateur team was defeated by 2 points by the South Australian Amateur team at South Fremantle Oval, in the dying minutes of one of the best ever state amateur clashes. WAAFL finished 2nd to Victoria in the triennial national championship series.
- The WAAFL integrated football program commenced this season. It is West Australia's first football competition for the intellectually disabled.
- The WAAFL appointed Cameron Agnew as their new General Manager of Senior Metropolitan Community Football.
- CUB (our major sponsor for over nine years) resigned another long term partnership deal to assist clubs and the league in remaining viable and continue growth in amateur football.
- North Beach A grade Coach, Bill Duckworth won their 7th premiership in a row, this making it 10 titles in 12 seasons under his tenure.

general managers report

The ability of the WAAFL to evolve as an organisation has been an underlying strength in the stature and success it experiences today. The landscape of senior community football in the metropolitan area has undertaken continual changes and this pattern will be repeated in the coming years. The WAAFL must therefore note the experiences of the past while being robust and clear on its path for the future.

In 2010 the WAAFL Board reviewed its strategic position as it had reached the mid point of its three year plan. In shoring up the direction of the League, "The WAAFL aspires to be a premier community sports competition". It aims to achieve this through having a positive community impact by enhancing and promoting amateur football.

As drivers behind this vision, the WAAFL has identified 5 key strategic pillars for which to identify and implement operational actions. This season has seen the fruition of some of these key objectives. Firstly, the value placed on upholding the amateur philosophy was a fundamental necessity. Central to this was the changes to the By-Laws impacting on player and coach remuneration. This was followed by two rounds of investigations conducted over 3 grades and involving 14 clubs and 23 persons. These steps are recognised as short term measures, while the change in culture and ongoing education will form the basis of the amateur status to be proudly proclaimed by all its members.

To further elevate its position as a premier community sports competition, the WAAFL aims to develop and support competitions for disadvantaged segments of the community. The target audience this season has been those with an intellectual disability. Through the strength of the club structure, over 90 registered players were involved in weekly training sessions and monthly fixtures. The concept has gained broader recognition which has facilitated more clubs aiming to develop teams in 2011. The goal of the integrated football program is to grow the club ownership and player base that will ultimately result in a competition reflective of the other current grades.

The advent of the District Football Development Councils (DFDC) has led to outstanding growth in football across WA. The state has seen a 90% increase in participation in seven years. The District Managers within each district are key players in this shift. The focus of the DFDC's in 2010 has moved significantly towards senior community football. The WAAFL has targeted the District Managers by engaging them with the Presidents of the clubs throughout the year. The WAAFL understands that volunteer support is extremely important to community football and has fostered the relationship building between clubs and the resources available from the DFDCs.

As the WAAFL is an affiliate of the Community Football Council (CFC), it plays a role in shaping senior metropolitan community football. The WAAFL is part of a united Council that has seen the strengthening of relationships between the different Leagues and Associations. Entering 2011 the evolution of football competition structures, improvements to game environments, the enhancement of the coach and umpire accreditation pathway and facilities will receive a generic industry focus.

I would personally like to acknowledge the efforts of those involved in community football for their outstanding contribution and commitment given in 2010. My appreciation also extends to the WAAFL Board and the Community Football Office staff for their support and service during my first year.

west coast eagles under 23 state amateur team

This year's state interstate clash saw the undefeated West Coast Eagles under 23 side take on South Australia at Fremantle Oval in game three of the triennial series. With WA having previously beaten both Tasmania and Victoria over the past two years a win would have given WA the title of national amateur champions.

In a great game of amateur football WA unfortunately fell agonizingly short of what would have been a magnificent achievement eventually going down by only 2 points with the final scores being 14.8 (92) to 14.10 (94).

As in the previous 2 series the WAAFL ended up being overall runners up with the final game deciding our fate.

In the lead up games against the WA State country and Peel league open age sides we recorded 1 kick loses in virtually identical circumstances to the state match where we hit the front late in all games only to be piped on the post in the final minute.

Twelve players made their debut in the black swan jumper this year with 14 clubs being represented from A, B and C grade.

In excess of 80 players attended the 9 week training program which also included 3 practice matches and although eventually falling short of our ultimate goal I couldn't be more proud of the professional manner in which all the players approached everything thrown at them.

From a coaches perspective I'm very pleased for the five WA boys selected in the All Australian side. WA Captain Damon Bull from Willetton, Chris Basili from CBC, Preston O'Keefe from Trinity Aquinas, Beau Witheridge from North Beach and Nicholas Kommer from Scarborough all thoroughly deserved the honor as they played their hearts out for their state.

Four WA boys travelled to South Africa in October with the Australian AFC touring side which proved to be an exciting and rewarding experience.

With the state colts having a win over the state 16's under the coaching of Andy Leinesars the future of representative football at amateur level looks very healthy.

We certainly look forward to next year's full carnival in South Australia where we play all the states and will be doing our best to take out the crown.

I'd like to sincerely thank John Davies and his board for once again showing faith in me this year and in particular League General Manager, Cameron Agnew and his energetic staff, State Team Coordinator Peter Grosser and Mr Fixit Geoff Palmer whose tireless support has been fantastic.

I'd also like to thank my own team, most of who have been with me throughout the past seven years and being significant in the success achieved: assistant coach/selectors Andrew Maiorana, Nick D'angelo and Stewart Johnston along with scouts Vic Smith and Warren Eddy, Property Man Extraordinaire Guy Ziati, trainer John Grierson and runners Ryan Faulkner and Gary Hasler.

In closing special mention must go to all the players, coaches and their WAAFL clubs as without their input and support, State Representative Amateur football wouldn't be as alive, vibrant and competitive as it is today.

Best on Ground – Damon Bull

west coast eagles state amateur colts team

A big thank you must go out to all the WAAFL clubs committees and coaches for their co-operation in this year's program. Twenty two clubs and sixty nine players were involved in this year's squad proving the program is being accepted within the WAAFL.

Even though the program is based on a platform to move into the 23's State squad, it offers players a chance of gaining access back in to the WAAFL system as well as pushing for a league birth within their own amateur club. It also allows for the coaching staff to gain in knowledge to push on to bigger and brighter futures.

Some of the aims of the development squad this year were to provide quality coaching, equipment and venue, in which to create a friendly environment of learning with positive reinforcement at all times whilst exposing them against players of the highest level in their own age group both in games and training.

Our first game was played at Gil Fraser Reserve against CBH Country Football League Colts for the Neil Judge Shield. In a fast and furious game the WAAFL were victorious. Best on ground went to Frasier McDougall of Bullcreek who went on to represent his state in the 23's squad against South Australia.

Our next outing was against the un-defeated East Fremantle Colts, these practice games have become valuable as part of the program even though we gave a strong performance East Fremantle showed us why they were un-defeated challenging our own squad to re think where they were at with their own football as individuals.

The program finished with a game against the WA 16's Academy squad. A challenge we all look forward to. In a great game of skill and discipline the Amateurs got off to a great start only to see the WA 16's storm home. In the end the WCE Amateur Colts held on to record their first victory over the Academy. A true testament to the players and coaching staffs commitment to the program. Well done

I would like to sincerely thank John Davies and his board for once again showing faith in me this year as well as League General Manager Cameron Agnew and State Team Co-ordinator Peter Grosser who have supported the programme fantastically. Thank you.

I would also like to thank the following people, Geoff Palmer and Matt Henson (WAAFL Operations Manager & Co-Ordinator). Assistant Coaches/Selectors Cameron Palmer, Mark Parnell, Russell Bank and Calvin Leighton, Team Manager Anton Ferrari, Runner Shane Leinasars and physios Luke Scales and Scott Gibbings.

I would like to finish off by thanking all players involved for their commitment and involvement to the Coaches and WAAFL Clubs for your support and input because without it State Representative Football would not be as exciting and healthy as it is today.

THE Western Australian Amateur Football League delivered a fantastic evening in celebration of amateur football's greats at the inaugural Hall of Champions dinner held on the 7th July 2010.

A High Achiever in Amateur Football award was also introduced, with Peter Featherby, Peter Tannock, Gavin Statham, Alan Barnett and Richard Colless being the first recipients.

WAAFL General Manager Cameron Agnew was please with the way the night unfolded. "The night was a fantastic success. Everyone in attendance, I think, felt privileged to be there. The night really reinforced the status and importance of amateur football," he said.

The Hall of Champions provides an opportunity for the community to recognize and remember the heroes of amateur football for decades to come.

The evening was held at Medibank Stadium in Leederville, with approximately 230 people in attendance.

Bernard Giles, Herbet Grosvenor, Laurence Tetley, Sam Miller and Thomas Naylor were the first five veterans of amateur football to be inducted into the Hall of Champions.

aafc tour to south africa - 2010

Driving through the streets of Cape Town to the Khayelitsha Cricket Ground, 23 young Aussies were plastered to one side of the bus looking out across the miles of South African Townships that lay ahead of us. Corrugated iron shacks, whole houses half the size of an average Australian bedroom and people lining the highways, we were all left wondering what our game was doing all the way out here.

These 23 young Aussies were part of the Australian Amateur Football Council (AAFC) tour to South Africa, which consisted of the best U/23 footballers from Amateur Leagues across Western Australia, South Australia, Victoria and Tasmania.

Arriving at the Khayelitsha Cricket Ground it looked a magnificent sight, with two big and two little sticks at either end of the cricket ground and hundreds of South African footballers preparing to represent their province in the National Championship. The AAFC team split up to help the players and the coaches of the four separate provinces improve the 'Big 5 Skills' of the game (kicking, handpassing, marking, evasive skills and defensive skills) as well as develop tactics and game styles.

Throughout the National Championships it was an amazing experience to get to know the South African players, where they came from, how they came to play footy WILD as it is called and the impact playing footy has had in their lives. With most participants living in the poor black townships which grabbed everyone's attention on the bus that first day, the one thing that truly shone through was the South African players' passion and love for the game. A game that is not overshadowed by a racist past, a game that allows players the freedom to run anywhere they like, a game that gives players the opportunity to not only travel outside their province (which most have never done) but also to travel to Australia and a game that gives players the chance to pass on their knowledge to the next generation in their community.

After the National Championships, the Australian Amateur team got our own chance to take on South Africa's National team, the Lions. Excited at the prospect of playing with some of the best young footballers in Australia, the Aussie's kicked 13 unanswered goals in the first half. Deciding then to mix the teams, both the Aussies and South African boys truly enjoyed the opportunity to play together and share our combined knowledge of the game, our game.

Comparing our own childhoods growing up playing footy in the different corners of Australia, to the path the South African players had taken to get to that game, there was indeed a great amount of admiration for South Africa's footballers and what they have been able to achieve after playing Australian football for such a short time.

Having made some fantastic friends which we will see next August in Australia for the International Cup, The AAFC tour moved on to experience the cultural wonders of South Africa including Table Mountain, the Cape of Good Hope, Soweto, Nelson Mandela's house and the Big 5 Game Animals.

A real highlight of the trip was conducting a clinic for primary school children in Tembisa, just outside of Johannesburg. All the AAFC players and officials were absolutely blown away by firstly how excited the kids were to be able to play footy, but also how skilled they were with a football in hand.

We have left South Africa with a unique understanding of the country, the people and how a whole new generation of South Africans love to go out and kick the footy as much as we do!

wa afl integrated football

After two years of hard work by a dedicated working party, football for the intellectually disabled has seen its first season of competition successfully completed.

Built on the back of four 'Come and Try' days in 2009, the program aimed to provide regular training and fixture for players aligned to community clubs.

The season commenced with a Lightning Carnival at Lynwood Ferndale providing over 40 players the opportunity to play AFL. The day was captured by Channel 10 and a segment was dedicated on the popular show The Western Front.

There were three clubs who stepped up to embrace this new level of football Fremantle CBC, Lynwood-Ferndale and Kingsway in the north with two teams, many thanks to those clubs and their support staff.

The competition was developed by the WAAFL with the aim to assist those with integration difficulties due to intellectual disability with getting involved in AFL. The teams are made up of players over the age of 16 and have a weekly training regiment to practice for their monthly game.

The program provides these teenagers and adults with a unique opportunity to experience the sense of community, inclusion and fun that is inherent in being a part of a football club that otherwise wouldn't be available.

The WAAFL are working in conjunction with Ausrapid, the Department of Sport and Recreation and Sport Network to support and grow the program.

This initiative by the WAAFL will see three other community clubs enter integrated football in season 2011. After conducting 'Come and Try' days at High Wycombe and Warnbro, both clubs are set to enter a team. A sixth team is planned to be developed out of Cockburn.

umpiring report

Overall 2010 was a successful season for the WAAFL Umpiring Team. Probably the most pleasing factor was that the majority of umpires and even more so umpire coaching staff were retained from 2009. Once again a number of umpires from Field, Boundary and Goal took the next step to join the WAAFL team both at pre-season and in-season showing that the umpire talent pathway through the WAAFL is working extremely well.

A mountain of work was done by Field Umpires Coach Terry Battle who led the team throughout the season. Terry Tomlinson returned as the Goal Umpires Coach for the 6th season and continued the good work he had done from previous seasons and Robbie McDonald stepped up to take on the role of Boundary Umpires Coach and fitted into the role remarkably well.

Pre-season started with a "shock" session back in December before moving into full swing in January. The team appeared to really relish the challenge of working hard during the hot summer and this meant that when the scratch matches and season proper were upon us everyone was firing on all cylinders.

Again once April hit and the team was able to settle into its long term home at Hamer Park. An absolutely outstanding venue which was further enhanced by the installation of new lights. The team has now been at the venue for 5 seasons and the support during this time of Andrew Frontino and the Mount Lawley Amateur Football Club has been second to none.

There were a number of new initiatives that the team undertook during the season and these included the trialing of a Yellow Match Day Uniform for Field Umpires which were made from different material, the return of an end of season Presentation Night on a Saturday evening, the use of the 3 Field Umpire system in the B and C League Grand Finals and the introduction of a Boundary Umpire Talent Squad.

A major highlight of 2010 was the debut of two Female Field Umpires in A Grade. This feat had been achieved by their Female Boundary and Goal Umpire counterparts but never in the Field Umpire discipline and both Amy Treeby (First) and Amy McQuade (Second) need to be congratulated on reaching the pinnacle of Amateur Football.

Another highlight was Amy McQuade and Female Goal Umpire Teegan Lincoln being selected to represent WA at the National Women's Under 18 Championships in Melbourne in September. Both young ladies excelled at this carnival showing that WA is leading the way in Female Umpiring across the nation.

In concluding there are a number of people that need thanking for their support in 2010. These include umpire coaching, support, administrative and training staff, the Umpires Association, the staff at the Community Football Office, the WAAFL Board and everyone out at Club land.
