After putting up a sterling performance for 3 quarters against last year's Premiers Subiaco, only to fade away in the last quarter to go down by 18 points, there were high expectations heading into the East Freo game at home on 18th May, but the team didn't fire and gave the Sharks their first win for the season. That made the home game the week after against newcomers West Coast a crucial match. The league side responded accordingly and came home with the win, showing that if they pull together 4 quarters of football they will stretch any team in the competition. Unfortunately, old habits die hard and after matching it with Perth for three quarters, and being in front at the last break, Perth came home with a flurry to win by 6 points. That just about closes the door on the 2019 season unless there is a huge change in performances.

After four straight losses the Reserves have now won three on the trot and find themselves knocking on the door of the top five. Hopefully they can continue their development and snare a few more wins.

The Colts made it 7 from 7 with a runaway win against Perth which sees them sitting clear top of the ladder by one game.

After a disappointing game against East Freo in round 3, the Women's league team bounced back against Peel Thunder in round four handing them a 46-point hiding. This sees the girls sitting third on percentage, with the top four sides all with two wins.

After round 8 the reserves sit 8th on the ladder with a 2/5 win/loss ratio and the colts also sit 5th on the ladder with a 3/3/1 win/loss/draw ratio.

The quality of our dinner guest speakers was reinforced when James McMahan received WA's highest honour, The 2019 West Australian of the Year at the Crown Ballroom last week. Also in attendance at the annual Award ceremony was Professor Bruce Robinson, our Club Patron and Swansmen guest in July 2013, just weeks after he too was awarded West Australian of the Year.

May Dinner Meeting

- New recruit George Hampson and young gun Ethan Maguire gave a summary of their life experiences inside and outside of football.
George grew up in Scarborough. He had two knee reconstructions at an early age and has won F&B awards at both Subiaco and East Fremantle. He left both Subiaco and East Freo after four years each due to personality clashes with the respective coaches. He likes to be honest and is a caring person which he attributes to his upbringing from his mum and dad.
- Young gun Ethan Maguire grew up in Bunbury and in 2014 was lucky enough to be in a winning Colts team in his first year at Swannies. He had moved to Perth at 17 which he said was challenging and in 2015 did his knee in a pre-season game and missed a whole year. He completed a Diploma in Building Design and is now doing Architecture. He enjoys Swannies and the great bunch of guys playing at the Club. He believes we are heading in the right direction. He lives in Applecross and used to live with Connor Blakely.
- The guest speaker for the night was Criminal Lawyer Seamus Rafferty. Seamus is a Claremont supporter, mad footy fan, an umpire, a member of the WAFL tribunal and has run his own practice for the last ten years. After leaving school he drifted a bit but had always wanted to do law. He was accepted into Notre Dame University and graduated in 2001. He only ever wanted to do criminal law, was articled at the DPP and admitted to the High Court in 2007. He has prosecuted almost everything. He believes 90% of people are well intentioned but some make stupid mistakes. His golden rule in practising law is not to speak to the media like some lawyers do to increase their profiles. He spoke briefly about several high-profile cases he took on and admitted he had to learn to shut off from some nasty cases he had to deal with. He believes the scourge of methamphetamine is the cause of 75% of cases now and WA is the most punitive State in Australia.
- There were two dinner raffle draws thanks to Kevin Gartrell donating a dart board. Doug McArthur won the Dan Murphy's voucher and Ethan Maguire drew out George Hampson's ticket for the dart board.
- Robin McVee finished off the night with his joke of the month.
