HALL OF CHAMPIONS

Overview

The purpose of the Hall of Champions is to recognise players, coaches, umpires, officials and teams who have achieved outstanding success and/or made a significant contribution in the Perth Football League (WAAFL).

SELECTION CRITERIA

1) Induction into the Hall of Champions

- To be inducted into the Hall of Champions a candidate shall have achieved outstanding success and/or made a significant contribution in the Perth Football League. This includes, but not limited to, games played, coached and/or umpired, years of service, achievements, integrity and character.
- A candidate may be an individual, club or a Perth Football League representative team.
- A member of the committee may be a candidate but shall declare a conflict of interest and not vote when the nomination is under consideration.

2) Recognition as a High Achiever

- To be recognised as a High Achiever a candidate shall have participated in the Perth Football League as player, coach, umpire and/or official, and have achieved outstanding success and/or made a significant contribution to the game of Australian football. This includes, but not limited to, games played, coached and/or umpired, years of service, achievements, integrity and character in other leagues such as the AFL, WAFL, and country and junior football.

- A candidate may only be an individual.
- A member of the committee may be a candidate but shall declare a conflict of interest and not vote when the nomination is under consideration.
- The Heritage and Awards Committee shall make recommendations to the WAAFL Board of eligible candidates as a High Achiever by 1 July each year.
- The WAAFL Board shall determine by resolution the committee's recommendations.

3) Inductees

- The Heritage & Awards committee will in its best endeavours ensure eligible candidates recommended to the Perth Football League Board are drawn from different eras.
- The committee shall recommend no more than ten eligible candidates per year.
- Nominations shall be received from committee members, individuals, Perth Football League clubs and umpire associations.
- As a minimum, each nomination received by the committee should include games played, coached and/or umpired, years of service and achievements in the Perth Football League and other leagues.
- The Heritage and Awards Committee shall make recommendations to the WAAFL Board of eligible candidates to the Hall of Champions by 1 July each year.
- The WAAFL Board shall determine by resolution the committee's recommendations.

The Perth Football League Board shall determine by resolution the committee's recommendations.

Submission should be submitted via the link below by 9 June 2023, detailing the achievements of the nominees to allow the selection committee to make a proper assessment.
