The AFL have launched a free webinar series to help local community football club volunteers plan for success in season 2023. Club development is a focus of the Perth Football League and clubs are encouraged to consider enrolling in some or all of the sessions below.

The all-new 'ClubHelp Webinar Series' will be delivered across eight 45-minute sessions in February and March. Content has been designed based on feedback and topics from a recent survey with community club volunteers around Australia.

2023 ClubHelp Webinar Series – schedule and topics:

Tues Feb 21	Mental Health: Tips to build mental fitness and respond to challenges
Wed Feb 22	Planning for success: Why it's important &amp; simple steps
Mon Feb 27	Volunteers: Tips to attract, retain &amp; reward your invaluable people
Wed Mar 1	Safeguarding children: Quality practices - in 4 steps
Tues Mar 7	Women & Girls: Create great experiences for Women &amp; Girls in 5 simple steps
Wed Mar 8	Grants: How to win at grant writing - for new facilities &amp; more
Tues Mar 14	Match Day: Tips for creating a great match day environment
Wed Mar 15	Concussion: Prevention tips &amp; how to handle incidents

All sessions will run from 4:15pm – 5:00pm WST. These sessions will be recorded and will be made available to view at any time.

As an incentive and to reward club volunteers who register and join the sessions, prizes totalling $10,000 in value are on offer.
